MEETING NOTES
Redmond Pedestrian and Bicycle Advisory Committee
November 21, 2013 6:30 PM City Hall Trestle Room

ATTENDEES:

Evan Morris, Lorraine Josifek, Heidi Angel, Arnie Tomac, Glen Buhlmann, Wesley Goo, Sandy Henderson, Martin Shuer, Lyndon Heywood, Hank Myers

CITY STAFF: Peter Dane, Doug Krueger, Don Cairns, Lei Wu

MEETING AGENDA

1. Pedestrian and Bicycle Vision and Implementation: Don Cairns, Transportation Planning & Engineering Manager, briefed the Committee on:
   - The City's vision for walking and bicycling,
   - Implementation strategies and resource constraints, and
   - The role of the Pedestrian Bicycle Advisory Committee as both advising staff projects and plans as well as being the eyes and ears for walking and bicycling in the community

   A discussion followed about how to increase communication about staff resources and for the committee to consider ways to assist with delivery of work items such as events.

2. 166th Corridor Study: The Committee listened to a presentation by Lei Wu, project manager, on the 166th Corridor Study. Members supported the planned bicycle lanes and crosswalk enhancements and a letter signed by the Chair will be submitted and included in the project file.

3. 2014 Work Plan: PBAC reviewed its accomplishments from 2013 and also looked at the status of items on the 2013 work plan. Members identified a three step process to determine the 2014 work plan: 1) initial brainstorm, November, 2) prioritize work plan items and submit a 2014 work plan to staff, and 3) staff provides a committed work plan, January.

4. Updates:
   - Bicycle Wayfinding

i. Staff have resources to restart work on the bicycle wayfinding project. The wayfinding subcommittee has an upcoming November meeting to move the project forward.

- Redmond Central Connector Grand Opening

  i. The first phase of the Redmond Central Connector will be officially opened on December 7th at a ceremony during Redmond lights. Festivities begin at City Hall at 4:00.