SUBJECT: STAFF REPORT: HUMAN SERVICES FUNDING RECOMMENDATIONS OVERVIEW

I. RECOMMENDED ACTION

The Human Services Commission will be presenting its funding recommendations to the City Council at a study session next week. This staff report outlines the planned presentation. No action is required at this time.

II. DEPARTMENT CONTACT PERSONS

Rob Odle, Planning Director, 425-556-2417
Colleen Kelly, Human Services Manager, 425-556-2423
Brooke Buckingham, Human Services Sr. Planner, 425-556-2416

III. DESCRIPTION/BACKGROUND

For the first time in Redmond, recommended allocations for human services funding will be presented to the City Council by the Human Services Commission. The presentation is scheduled for the study session on September 28, 2010, and will be conducted as a joint meeting. The Commission and staff plan to cover the following:

- Brief review of the development of the strategic plan and establishing the Commission
- Overview of the application process
- Available funds
- Commission review process including rating criteria
- Challenging issues
- Presentation of specific funding recommendations

Staff would like to know if there is any additional information Council members would like to have presented or available as part of next week's joint meeting. Should you have any questions prior to September 21, please contact Brooke Buckingham (bbuckingham@redmond.gov) or Colleen Kelly (ckelly@redmond.gov).
