Dirt Jump Field Trip Colonnade, Seattle, WA

City of Redmond July 9, 2009

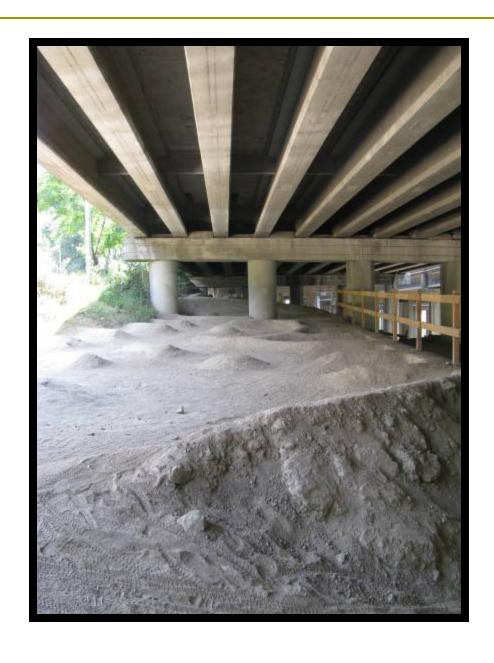

An introduction to how Colonnade was constructed by Evergreen Mountain Bike Alliance's John Lang

Loading into the jump line

The pump track – good for all ability levels

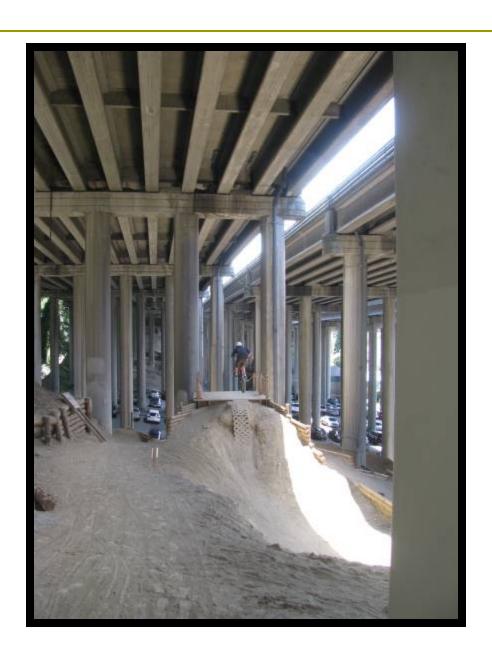

The Drop-In Zone Skills Center

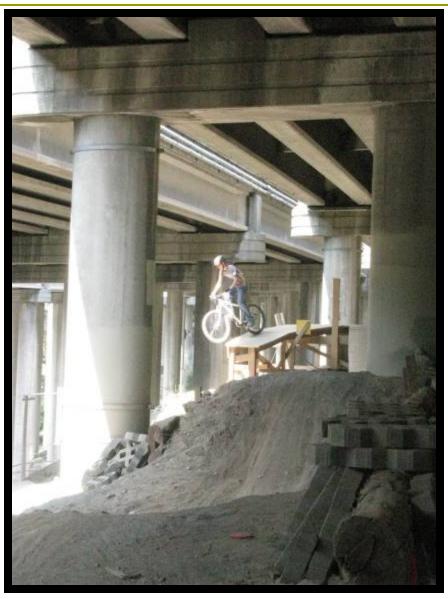

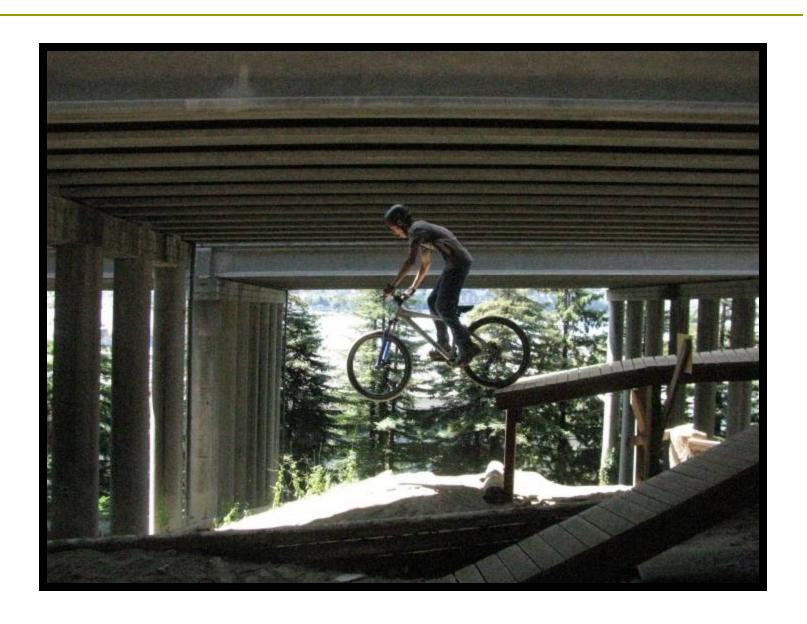

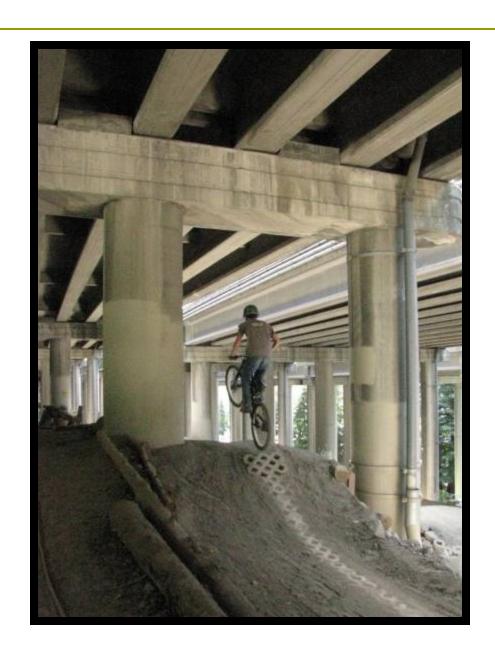

Dropping into a more difficult line, the drop in weeds out riders who shouldn't use this line.

The drop in - again

A table with concrete reinforcement to keep the slope stable

The drop in zone

The drop in zone

A drop leading into another set of jumps
