Human Services Program DirectoryServing the residents of the City of Redmond

Agency	Service
Assistance League of Eastside www.eastside.assistanceleague.org	Operation School Bell - Provides new clothing, school supplies and other items to at-risk, in-need children attending Redmond's elementary and junior high schools. See school counselor for more information.
AtWork! www.atwork-issaquah.com	High School and Adult Transition to Community Employment - Employment training and placement which enables individuals with severe and multiple disabilities to be employed and earn wages.
Catholic Community Services www.ccsww.org	Harrington House – A transitional housing program serving pregnant or parenting women with a child 18 months or younger.
	Volunteer Chore Services - Volunteers assist with chores such as housework, yard work, laundry, and shopping to frail persons with low income.
Child Care Resources www.childcare.org	Scholarships – Scholarships to enroll children one month to 12 years old in child care for families from Redmond having low and moderately low income, provided they are ineligible for other subsidies OR are on subsidy's waiting list.
	Information and Referral - Provides training programs, technical assistance, and support services for licensed childcare providers in Redmond. Provides Redmond families with telephone information and referral service to licensed childcare providers in King County.
Children's Response Center www.childrensresponsecenter.org	Services for Sexual Assault - Provides comprehensive services to victims of sexual assault and trauma. Provides ongoing counseling for sexual abuse victims, including treatment groups for children, ages 4-10, and concurrent parent support groups. Free legal and medical advocacy. Offers professional/community education and professional consultation.
Chinese Information Services	Cultural Navigator Program - Assists limited and non-

Agency	Service
Center www.cisc-seattle.org	English speaking individuals and families in accessing appropriate services and navigating through those service systems. This may include referral information, providing reference materials, completing application forms, follow up, and family support services. Interpretation and translation are provided on a limited basis.
Community Health Centers of King County	Medical care - Comprehensive medical care (treatment, exams, etc.).
www.chckc.org	Dental care – Services include emergency and routine dental care such as cleanings, fillings, and other services.
	Natural medicine – Natural medicine services provided to low income and uninsured residents.
Consejo www.consejo-wa.org	Community and Legal Advocacy Program - Provides community and legal advocacy to victims of domestic violence, specifically non- or limited English-language proficient Latina women.
Crisis Clinic www.crisisclinic.org	2-1-1 Community Information Line - Get information on variety of services and programs offered in King County. Includes updated information about space available in women and family shelters. (Information is usually available by 9:30 a.m.) Call 2-1-1 or 206-461-3200 or 1-800-621-INFO.
	24-Hour Crisis Line . Trained volunteers respond to calls from people in crisis and emotional distress. Provides linkage to mental health and other social services. Call 206-461-3222 or 1-866-4CRISIS.
	Teen Link Help Line. Trained teen volunteers respond to calls from youth needing to talk about any issue concerning them. Confidential and anonymous. Call 206-461-4922 or 1-866-TEENLINK.
Eastside Baby Corner www.babycorner.org	Supplies for low income children - Provides diapers and formula to Eastside food banks and cribs and car seats to needy infants in East King County. Clients obtain these goods via other helping agencies like Hopelink or Friends of Youth, not directly from Eastside Baby Corner.

Agency	Service
Eastside Domestic Violence Program www.edvp.org	Community Advocacy - Provides community advocacy, shelter, counseling, and crisis intervention for victims of domestic violence and their families. Shelter/Housing - Safe, confidential housing units for domestic violence victims and their children. 24-Hour crisis line: 425-746-1940
Eastside Interfaith Social Concerns Council www.cfhomeless.org	Congregations for the Homeless (CHF) Shelter - A cooperative of 12 Eastside congregations providing shelter, food, and employment related services to homeless men. Each month a different congregation hosts the program and donates their facility, food, and volunteers.
	Intake line: 425-749-8369
	Congregations for the Homeless (CFH) Housing - The CFH Housing program places homeless men into housing, provides rent subsidies and case management.
Eastside Legal Assistance Program www.elap.org	Eastside Legal Assistance Program - Provides 30-minute legal advice sessions from an attorney, either in person or over the phone, relating to divorce, domestic violence, child support, landlord/tenant, consumer, public entitlements, wills, and probate. Does not assist with criminal cases. Provides referrals for representation for civil cases.
Elder and Adult Day Services www.eadsdayhealth.org	Comprehensive Adult Day Health Service Program - Provides adult day health services for frail elders and adults with disabilities, who need daytime restorative or rehabilitative services for independent living. Young adult program provides social and day health services for individuals, ages 18-45. Additional services include support groups and information and referral
Friends of Youth www.friendsofyouth.org	Runaway and Homeless Youth - Provides shelter, transitional housing and counseling for homeless and runaway youth, and young adults, including pregnant

Agency	Service
	teens. Recruits foster parents for Redmond.
	Healthy Start - Provides in-home support program for new first-time parents, age 21 and younger, in collaboration with many youth service providers.
	Neighborhood Schoolhouse - Community Learning & Family Support Center in Redmond Elementary School serves Redmond families with before/after school affordable programs.
Hopelink www.hope-link.org	Housing Support - Provides emergency shelter, transitional housing, and support of rent, as well as a variety of services aimed at helping individuals increase their sense of independence.
	Eastside Literacy Program - Trained volunteers provide basic literacy tutoring and English as a second language instruction at multi-levels of proficiencies. Provides GED preparation and family literacy programs.
	Family Development - Comprehensive case management and other tailored support services to help low income, at risk, Redmond residents become self-sufficient.
Jewish Family Services www.jfsseattle.org	Refugee and Immigrant Services - Provides a range of programs offering employment assistance and other social services for refugees, immigrants, and other low-income individuals.
Kindering Center www.kindering.org	Early Childhood Consultation Program - Offers a variety of services to children who are developmentally disabled, abused, or neglected, and to their families. Provides parenting classes and support groups for families at risk of abuse.
King County Sexual Assault Resource Center www.kcsarc.org	Comprehensive Sexual Assault Services - Provides 24-hour phone crisis intervention, referrals for medical and legal questions, and emotional support for victims of sexual assault. 24-hour crisis line: 800-825-7273 or 888-99-VOICE
Lake Washington Schools Foundation	LINKS - Places community volunteers in schools that do not have the traditional volunteer base and that have a

Agency	Service
www.linksvolunteer.org	high percentage of free and reduced lunch and English Language Learners. LINKS volunteers work as classroom volunteers, tutors, and lunch buddies/mentors
Lake Washington Technical College www.lwtc.ctc.edu	Scholarships - Provides scholarships for technical training programs for lower income students from Redmond. Programs include job skills, adult basic education, continuing education, computer skills training, and English as a Second Language classes.
NAMI Eastside www.nami-eastside.org	Education, Support and Advocacy - Provides support, education and advocacy programs for families of persons with serious mental illness and individuals experiencing mental illness.
	Hero House – Provides services to adults recovering from serious mental illness. It focuses on employment, education and socialization through a work-mediated relationship structure. Offers both pre-vocational and vocational services simultaneously with recovery based stabilization services.
Senior Services www.seniorservices.org	Meals on Wheels - Home-delivered meals and liquid nutritional supplements for homebound older adults, ages 60 and older and people with disabilities.
	Volunteer Transportation - Volunteer drivers provide rides to medical appointments and other essential services for clients, ages 60 and over, who are unable to use other forms of transportation.
Sound Mental Health www.smh.org	At Risk Youth - Offers intensive, in-home or community-based, wrap around services for "at risk" youth and families not covered by insurance.
	Low-Income Counseling - Provides affordable counseling and psychiatric services using volunteers/interns as well as psychiatric evaluations and medication management to low-income clients.
Youth Eastside Services www.youtheastsideservices.org	Family Net - Offers at-risk school children and their families counseling, crisis intervention, referrals, linkages to existing programs, and other assorted services. Provided at a variety of locations in schools.

Agency	Service
	Early Intervention - Provides comprehensive counseling and social services for Eastside youth and their families at a variety of locations. A counselor from YES is available during regular drop-in hours to talk about issues, school problems, substance abuse, teen dating, violence, anger management, etc.
YWCA www.ywcaworks.org	Family Village - Provides job skills training, job search assistance, professional clothing for adults, transitional and permanent housing for families, and childcare for low-income and homeless children.
	Women's Drop-in Center - A safe, welcoming daytime drop-in center for homeless women. Provides meals and snacks, showers, laundry, phone and computers, and services to help women stabilize and work toward self-sufficiency. Located at the Bellevue First Congregational Church community room.