BACKGROUND

Public Works Director, Bill Campbell, retired in April 2012. The City has begun a national recruitment to replace Mr. Campbell and anticipates the position will be filled in September. For the interim, Tim Fuller, retired Fire Chief, has agreed to return to Redmond as the Interim Public Works Director. I am requesting the Council confirm Mr. Fuller's appointment to this position.

Tim brings substantial experience to this position and assisted the City in a similar situation when Steve Harris retired from the position of Police Chief in 2009. Tim became Interim Police Chief and provided leadership and guidance to the Police Department for almost a year while the City recruited Chief Ron Gibson.
