FRIDAY

Artist Talk, Theatre Workshop, Open Audition LUCIA NEARE, WWW.LUCIANEARE.ORG
2-4pm, Friday, August 10th

Theatrical wonder maker Luica Neare invites you to join her for an artist talk, theater workshop, and open audition for the September performance of Professor Pomme's Pomp and Pastry Paradoxicals. Neare is a classical singer, sculptor, theatrical designer and performance artist whose large-scale performances are filled with whimsy, paradox, audience interaction, dance and music. "The fairy-tale feeling of Neare's works is undeniable (and, like all good fairy tales, irresistible)." - Seattle Magazine

Improvisational Theatre

JET CITY IMPROV, WWW.JETCITYIMPROV.COM

5-6:30pm, Friday, August 10th

A fast-paced, funny, interactive for all-ages appropriate short-form improv show... all based on YOUR suggestions! Is this stand-up? No! This is improvisational scene- and game-based theater; much like TheaterSports, ComedySportz or Whose Line is it Anyway?

Taming of the Shrew

GREENSTAGE, WWW.GREENSTAGE.ORG

7pm-Sunset, Friday, August 10th

This popular comedy written by William Shakespeare follows the strange inhabitants of Padua and their hilarious misadventures in pursuit of love. Guitars become weapons, suitors become tutors, and the unlikeliest of lovers discover in one another the best parts of who they are. Directed by Marc "Mok" Moser.

SATURDAY

Sally and Thor Save the World at Summer Camp - BALAGAN THEATRE 2-3:30pm, Saturday, August 11^{th}

Little Red Riding Hood meets Baloo the Bear, Thor's hammer is stolen, and 10-year-old Sally is just trying to get home through a land where myths collide, from "The Jungle Book" to Northwest Native mythology to Grimm's fairy tales... all thanks to that ancient Trickster, Raven. Parents and kids alike will enjoy this remix of age-old stories as Sally learns of friendship, trust, and home.

SATURDAY - Cont.

Split 2nd Impov - SECONDSTORY REPERTORY

4-5pm, Saturday, August 11th

Never see the same show twice... because you, the audience, decide what the actors do onstage. Your suggestions craft our show! Hilarious improv theater from Redmond's finest theater company. All the action is PG-13.

Inverse Opera - SECONDSTORY REPERTORY

4-5pm, Saturday, August 11th

The Inverse Opera (TIO) serves up music from Puccini to Tom Waits and everything in between! Enjoy lively cabarets that obliterate preconceptions about opera as a pretentious art form. All players are exceptionally-trained singers and perform within feet of the audience, for an exciting and up-close experience.

Twelfth Night - SEATTLE SHAKESPEARE COMPANY 7pm-Sunset, Saturday, August 11th

Love has everyone unglued in Illyria. When Viola, a castaway, disguises herself as a boy to find work as Duke Orsino's servant, she gets caught in a compromising love triangle. Meanwhile, Olivia's household cranks up their mischief making by tricking a stuffy steward into believing his mistress has fallen for him. This treasured comedy brims with wild infatuations, delightful antics, and beloved comic characters.

SUNDAY

West Coast Premiere of Hansel and Gretel - THEATRE SCHMEATER

2-3pm, Sunday, August 12th

This is not your grandmother's Hansel and Gretel. This pantomimic adaptation tells you the rest of the story of what happens to the siblings after they stuff the mean old witch into the oven, turn the knob to broil, and return to a highly dysfunctional family life.

Julius Cesar - LAST LEAF PRODUCTIONS

4-5pm, Sunday, August 12th

Written in 1599, William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar tells the familiar and complex story of the assassination of one of the last leaders of the Roman Republic. Full of political intrigue, personal ambition and a frantic desire to protect the Republic, this play shows us what happens when we make our public figures into gods. Directed by Stephanie Hagarty.

SUNDAY - Cont.

Macbeth - LAST LEAF PRODUCTIONS 5:30-6:30pm, Sunday, August 12th

Macbeth is Shakespeare's action-packed tale of an ambitious man and his equally ambitious wife. They seize upon a strange prophecy and an unexpected golden opportunity, and murder their way to the Scottish throne, only to descend into madness, more murders, horror, and mayhem. Directed by Charles Eliot.

The Lost Folio - JET CITY IMPROV 7pm-Sunset, Sunday, August 12th

The Lost Folio is a full length improvised parody of Shakespeare. A traveling band of gypsy players collect suggestions from the audience in order to create a new work in the style of Shakespeare. The result is a smart, funny and bawdy show that you will never forget. Each performance the cast will create completely unique plots and characters. No two performances are the same.
