Working Agreements

How we treat each other

- trust each other's intentions, assume good intent
- disagreement isn't necessarily bad
- seek to understand
- ask clarifying questions instead of confronting/simply disagreeing
- courtesy for all points of view
- patience
- recognize that everyone has different passions and bases of knowledge
- refrain from telling others what they're thinking or feeling
- don't interrupt each other

How we treat ourselves

- try not to take things personally but some things do impact you personally
- take care of yourself as needed
- don't be afraid to step out of your comfort zone
- make your needs known
- be gracious with others and yourself - OK to make mistakes

How we work as a group

- do check ins/ice breakers
- state preferred pronouns as you are comfortable when doing introductions
- no acronyms or jargon, but explain if we have to use them
- OK to ask for clarification and definitions - no stupid questions
- be present
- ask "why am I talking?" and "why am I not talking?"
- make room for all voices and remember who is not at the table
- make space to celebrate inclusively/enjoy the moment
- resolve to let any past issues carry over
- respect each organization and their application(s)
- consider gathering socially to build trust and relationships
- all conversations stay in the room
- add to or modify this list as needed
