CITY OF REDMOND
ORDINANCE NO. 2829

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF REDMOND,
WASHINGTON, AMENDING RMC 2.32, STANDING COMMITTEES OF THE COUNCIL, TO CHANGE THE
NAME OF THE "PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE" COMMITTEE TO THE "FINANCE, ADMINISTRATION, AND COMMUNICATIONS"
COMMITTEE

WHEREAS, the Public Administration and Finance Committee met on February 23, 2016, and again on March 22, 2016; and

WHEREAS, at those meetings the committee expressed their desire to amend the name of the committee from the "Public Administration and Finance" Committee to the "Finance, Administration, and Communications" Committee in order to encompass the function of communications.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Classification. This ordinance is of a general and permanent nature and shall become a part of the City Code.

Section 2. Amendment of Chapter. RMC 2.32, Standing Committees of the Council, is hereby amended to read as follows:

2.32.010 Creation.

The following standing committees of the City Council are created and established:

(1) [~~PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE~~] Finance, Administration, and Communications;

- (2) Public Safety;
- (3) Planning and Public Works;
- (4) Parks and Human Services;
- (5) Regional Affairs.

2.32.020 Function and purpose.

(A) The standing committees shall function to inform and educate the Council on existing city programs and issues, to provide an opportunity to explore the implications of policy alternatives as part of the policy development process, and to serve in an advisory capacity to the Council as a whole in reviewing policy matters referred to them by the Council, and such other matters as the whole Council by simple majority vote may direct. The committees shall have no power or authority to commit the city or to take any binding action on their part without the express authorization of the Council as a whole. The committees shall be concerned primarily with policy matters and matters vested in the legislative body of the city and shall not become involved in the administration of the city government and city interests. In general, the purpose of each committee shall be to review matters within the following subject areas:

(1) [~~PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE~~]

Finance, Administration, and Communications: The review, analysis and recommendation of policies governing the function and operation of municipal government through its departments, boards, and appointive officers; personnel management policies, including salary and compensation plans, working conditions and employment benefits; maintenance of public records and documents; communications, public relations and information; inventory and control of municipally-owned property; comprehensive municipal insurance coverage; and, generally, policy areas dealing with public administration; financial policy; analysis of and advice on the budget process, proposed budgets and other financial programs with respect to overall city policy; Council rules and procedures, matters relating to conflict of interest, questions and code of ethics for public officials; campaign practices and expenditures; and, generally, matters relating to the conduct of municipal affairs, its rules and ethics;

(2) Public Safety: The review, analysis and recommendation of policies affecting law enforcement and fire protection; animal control; civil defense; and public health and safety;

(3) Planning and Public Works: The review, analysis and recommendation of policies governing comprehensive and coordinated land use planning and management; energy; subdivisions and plats; preservation and protection of greenbelts, floodplains, shorelines and natural amenities; annexation and area planning; and, generally, the supervision and control of the development and land use process; street and right-of-way improvements, maintenance and operation; public utilities, including storm drainage, sanitary sewers, water, coordination with special purpose districts and other municipal utilities, and supervision over privately owned public utilities; public buildings and improvements; construction and building codes and regulations; and,

generally, projects and facilities within the area of public works;

(4) Parks and Human Services: The review, analysis and recommendation of policies regarding parks facilities and recreational programs; coordination of education programs and facilities; programs and facilities for senior citizens, underprivileged and handicapped persons, minorities and low-income families; and, generally, areas involving the preservation, protection and advancement of human concerns; and

(5) Regional Affairs: Review and discussion of issues affecting Redmond in a regional context, and in relation to other municipal, county, regional, state and federal governments and agencies.
