

Memorandum

To: Planning Commission

From: Beckye Frey, Senior Long-Range Planner
Planning and Community Development

Date: May 27, 2020

Subject: Redmond 2050 – Context, Scope, and Community Involvement

BACKGROUND

Staff have been working for the last several months on the start-up tasks for the next periodic update of the Redmond Comprehensive Plan, a project that will be called “Redmond 2050.” Staff provided briefings to the Planning Commission and the City Council on the following dates:

- January 22, 2020 – Planning Commission
- March 10, 2020 – City Council, Planning and Public Works Committee of the Whole
- April 14, 2020 – City Council
- May 19, 2020 – City Council

At this Planning Commission meeting, staff will be sharing the memos and attachments that were provided to the City Council and updating the Planning Commission on regional and local efforts that will impact the update. Staff will also provide an overview of the scope for this update and review the draft Community Involvement Plan with the Commissioners.

ATTACHMENTS

- City Council Committee of the Whole memo (dated March 3, 2020)
- April 14th City Council Memo
- May 19th City Council Memo and attachments
 - A – Scope and Timeline
 - B – Community Benefits
 - C – Draft Community Engagement Plan
- King County Planning Directors Update (April 23, 2020)