

Movies and Videos About Homelessness

American Refugees, four short animated films about real families, homelessness & resilience. 17 min total. See the trailer and discussion guide.

American Winter tells the stories of families in the Pacific Northwest falling out of the middle class. 90 min. See the trailer and discussion guide.

99 Homes, a high-stakes drama depicting the economic crisis of 2008 and the evictions that followed. 112 min. See the trailer.

Time Out of Mind, a look at one man's experience with chronic homelessness on the streets of New York. 121 min. See the trailer.

It Was a Wonderful Life, a documentary dealing with women, once secure in their middle-class status, who through divorce, misfortune, or circumstances end up living on the street. 82 min.

Inocente, Academy Award-winning coming-of-age story of a homeless and undocumented 15-year old girl. 40 min.

The Homestretch, tells the stories of three homeless teens as they fight to stay in school, graduate, and build a future. 90 min. See the trailer and discussion guide.

