

Housing Choices

The Community Strategic Plan (October 2019) identifies a number of specific strategies to achieve housing choices for all who would choose to live in Redmond. Measures include evaluating parking requirements, permitting and infrastructure costs that affect overall housing costs. In addition, strategies are identified to increase the supply of housing close to where people work, shop, play and other services instead of spending time commuting to and from home.