

REDMOND »»» 2050

Themes 2.0

---

Planning Commission Study Session
July 14, 2021

Purpose

- Share Themes 2.0 materials:
  - Revised theme definitions and
  - The new statements of intent and review toolkits (“lenses”)
- Obtain Planning Commission feedback on Themes 2.0 materials and what questions you would like us to ask the community in the next round of community engagement

Two Themes Reports Available Online

- Summary of Community Comments (through April 15)
- Themes 2.0 Report

<https://www.redmond.gov/1495/Engagement-Summaries>

Revised Definitions

- Equity: The City provides all community members with equal and effective city services, resources, opportunities, and influence, so that all people achieve their full potential and thrive. Equity is a purposeful and eager journey toward well-being as defined by those most negatively impacted.
- Inclusion: The City treats all people respectfully; values all people for their distinctive skills, experiences, and perspectives; engages all people to contribute to the community's success; and leverages resources and city services where needed.

Revised Definitions

- Sustainability: Meeting the needs of current and future generations and advancing environmental conservation, economic prosperity, and a high quality of life for all.
- Resiliency: Ensuring that the community as a whole is prepared for, able to adapt to, and can recover effectively from disruptive conditions.

Discussion

- Statements of Intent
- Toolkits

NOTE: Staff will be displaying and walking through Attachment A, the Themes 2.0 Report, available online at: <https://www.redmond.gov/1495/Engagement-Summaries> or <https://www.redmond.gov/1527/PC-Meeting-Materials>.

Next Steps

- Staff will be using the Toolkits/"Lenses" for review of the Phase 1 Elements and policies (already underway)
- The next round of community engagement on these Themes will be over the summer.
  - Will include a report back to those that provided input during the first round of engagement.
  - Will be translating the flyers into top 3 languages