

Organizations That Support Older Adults and People Living with Disabilities

Bridge of Promise

Bridge of Promise provides engaging recreational, social, and educational opportunities for all individuals with developmental disabilities.

Catholic Community Services

Volunteers assist low-income elders and adults with chronic illnesses or disabilities remain independent in their own home, providing companionship, light housework, and other simple chores.

Chinese Information and Service Center

CISC provides short-term support and crisis intervention to help low-income older adults and adults with disabilities with no/low English literacy to access crucial services. They serve Chinese, Russian, and Ukrainian seniors and families through day services, case management, care coordination, and caregiver support.

Community Homes

Community Homes provides, promotes, and sustains exceptional community-based housing for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Indian American Community Services

IACS promotes seniors' health and wellbeing by providing weekly social and physical activities including an inter-generational community lunch held at several local pop-up community centers.

Kindering

Kindering embraces children of diverse abilities and their families by providing the finest education and therapies to nurture hope, courage, and the skills to soar.

Sound Generations

The Volunteer Transportation program provides free, personalized, and safe transportation to essential healthcare appointments for older adults.