

Organizations That Support Youth and Families to Build Resilient Communities

4 Tomorrow

4 Tomorrow's Life Services Program is a comprehensive family and individual support system focused on helping Latino, Spanish, and Portuguese speaking residents create goals related to basic needs, educational attainment, housing stability, immigration applications, mental health referrals and more.

Chinese Information and Service Center

CISC helps immigrants make the transition to a new life while keeping later generations in touch with their rich heritage. They offer preschool and youth programs, bilingual parent education, employment services, senior programs, and cultural programs that strengthen the bonds of family and community.

Communities in Schools Greater King County

Now serving the Lake Washington School District, Communities in Schools surround students with a community of support, empowering them to stay in school and achieve in life.

Hopelink

Hopelink's Family Development and Education programs help families achieve housing stability and long-term economic self-sufficiency for lasting change.

Indian American Community Services

IACS follows a model of community outreach that makes taking part in community activities accessible for members who live in various cities across the Eastside. These centers allow community members to better connect with each other and also opens up connection with other communities.

Kindering

Kindering embraces children of diverse abilities and their families by providing the finest education and therapies to nurture hope, courage, and the skills to soar.

Muslim Community Resource Center

MAPS-MCRC provides marriage and counseling services, Islamic funeral services, and legal clinics for individuals and families in need.

The YMCA of Greater Seattle

The Redmond Brainfood Program at Summerwood and Forest Grove provides a safe space for Redmond youth to engage in educational and enrichment activities, a nutritious meal, and opportunities to create connections with peers and their community.