PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, and we stand with the courageous women and men who have been diagnosed with breast cancer, celebrate the survivors, and honor those who have lost their battle to this terrible disease; and
- WHEREAS, cancer touches so many members of our community, and it is up to all of us to continue fighting for a cure; and
- WHEREAS, early detection is one of the most important strategies for treating breast cancer successfully, and regular screenings are the most reliable way to detect it early; and
- WHEREAS, everyone is encouraged to maintain their scheduled screenings, doctor appointments, and treatments without delay while observing coronavirus safety measures; and
- WHEREAS, as we observe National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, we are united in our commitment to ending breast cancer and improving the lives of all those affected by this illness; and
- WHEREAS, we applaud the advocates, medical professionals, researchers, and caregivers who dedicate their lives to making progress toward cures; and
- WHEREAS, for the entire month of October, the Redmond Police Department will participate in the Pink Patch Project, a public awareness campaign to bring attention to the fight against breast cancer and support breast cancer research organizations; and
- WHEREAS, the project is a collaborative effort between the Redmond Police Foundation and the Redmond Police Department, and to support this cause, the public can purchase a pink, fully embroidered patch by visiting the Redmond Police Department Lobby or <https://pinkpatchproject.com/washington/579-redmond-police-department>;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANGELA BIRNEY, Mayor of the City of Redmond, Washington, do hereby proclaim October 2021 as

and encourage everyone to observe this month by raising awareness, supporting all those who have been impacted by a breast cancer diagnosis, maintaining regular screenings, and contributing to the efforts to find a cure.
