- Monday, February 27, 2023 Applications due, 5pm PST
- Monday, March 13, 2023 Selection announced
- Saturdays, April 22 & 29 Workshop Dates, 10am-5pm *

*Location: Downtown Redmond (email CulturalArts@redmond.gov if virtual accommodations are needed)

OPPORTUNITY :

Public Art Intensive Eastside is a two-day basic training sponsored by the City of Redmond and open to visual artists who have an interest in exploring the presentation of their work in public settings, community-building or enhancing the built environment. Topics covered include contracting, fabrication, maintenance, and social practice. Plan to spend an additional 8-12 hours outside of the workshops to develop a public art concept for homework.

Participants that attend both dates and complete the homework will receive a $100 stipend and be eligible for an exclusive paid opportunity to apply for a temporary public art project for the City of Redmond.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Artists will be selected through a panel process based on the strength of their application and must meet the below qualifications:

- Must be 18 years old or older
- Must live in and around Redmond or surrounding areas
- Able to participate in both workshop dates
- Has not received a temporary or permanently sited public commission with a total budget of over $5,000
- Has not previously completed the Public Art Intensive Eastside

The City of Redmond affirms its commitment towards a culturally inclusive community and seeks artists comprised of a diverse working group in terms of cultural experiences, backgrounds, ethnicities, sexual identity, gender identity and abilities, etc.
