Re: BelRed Family Resource Center will provide a combination of day time services and overnight emergency shelter to help women and their children journey out of homelessness and move into more permanent and stable housing. BelRed Family Resource Center will be operated by highly trained staff from Seattle's Union Gospel Mission. This is a privately funded partnership between Evangelical Chinese Church, Creekside Covenant Church, Westminster Chapel and Seattle's Union Gospel Mission. Please visit www.ugm.org/belred for additional information.

Evangelical Chinese Church, who owns the property, partner churches (Creekside Covenant Church and Westminster Chapel) and Seattle's Union Gospel Mission are holding this meeting which will serve as an opportunity for interested parties and nearby property owners to review, comment, and ask questions of the applicant regarding their proposal. This meeting will be held prior to the City of Redmond Technical Committee taking final action on this project. The doors will open at 5:15pm and attendees who wish to make a comment or ask a question are encouraged to sign up upon arrival.

Please contact Jen Browning at 206.432.8426 or jbrowning@ugm.org if you have any questions.
